

Wavenet Limited. Compliance With The Principles of GDPR (May 2018)

a) Data must be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals.

Wavenet Limited. has a legitimate interest to process personal data relating to decision makers and budget holders in mediumto-large organisations in the UK. The data is gathered from publicly available sources and directly from the companies concerned.

b) Data must be collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes.

Data is collected solely for the purpose of compiling a database of business contacts to be used by Wavenet Limited. for business-tobusiness marketing.

(c) Data must be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed.

The data collected is limited to names of senior managers and directors, their job titles, company addresses, company landline telephone numbers and corporate email addresses.

(d) Data must be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay.

Wavenet Limited. checks all information at least twice a year to ensure that it is kept accurate and up-to-date – opt outs are provided at the footer of every email and any notifications of expired data are updated within our systems as often as possible.
